Colossians 3:5-11

<sup>5</sup> Put to death, therefore, whatever belongs to your earthly nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires and greed, which is idolatry. <sup>6</sup>Because of these, the wrath of God is coming. <sup>7</sup>You used to walk in these ways, in the life you once lived. <sup>8</sup>But now you must also rid yourselves of all such things as these: anger, rage, malice, slander, and filthy language from your lips. <sup>9</sup>Do not lie to each other, since you have taken off your old self with its practices <sup>10</sup>and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator.

<sup>11</sup> Here there is no Gentile or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Christ is all, and is in all.

Questions for Discussion

1. What does this Bible passage say about God?
2. What does it say about us?
3. What commandments does it give?
4. What promises does it make?
5. On Sunday, Pastor Jim talked about a football player who ran 66 yards in the wrong direction. What must it have felt like while he was running? What does it look like when we spend life running in the wrong direction?
6. What does it mean to have a new nature once we become Christians?

Take time to pray for each other.
