Ephesians 4:25-5:1

25 Therefore each of you must put off falsehood and speak truthfully to your neighbor, for we are all members of one body. 26 "In your anger do not sin": Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry, 27 and do not give the devil a foothold. 28 Anyone who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must work, doing something useful with their own hands, that they may have something to share with those in need. 29 Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. 30 And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. 31 Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice. 32 Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.

Questions for Discussion

1. Why does Paul, who believes in God's free love rather than in earning God's love through good works, talk about living rightly?
2. What does Christian community look like when we give our hearts wholeheartedly to the cause of Jesus?
3. What does it look like when we don't?
4. How is it possible to regularly go to church but not grow in your faith?
5. What are some critical steps that help us grow in faith?
6. What is a practical next step for you as you grow in faith?

Take time to pray for each other.
