Luke 16:1-15

... 10 "Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much. 11 So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches? 12 And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else's property, who will give you property of your own? 13 "No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money." 14 The Pharisees, who loved money, heard all this and were sneering at Jesus. 15 He said to them, "You are the ones who justify yourselves in the eyes of others, but God knows your hearts. What people value highly is detestable in God's sight."

Questions for Discussion

1. Explain the parable of the shrewd manager (Luke 16:1-15).
2. Why might the parable be confusing?
3. How is it that the manager might actually be doing what is right?
4. What does it mean that we are to "use money to make friends?"
5. What is the difference between a well-kept life and a well-used life?
6. If we use our resources to honor God, what will our lives look like?

Take time to pray for each other.
