Matthew 21:28-31

28 "What do you think? There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work today in the vineyard.' 29 "I will not," he answered, but later he changed his mind and went. 30 "Then the father went to the other son and said the same thing. He answered, 'I will, sir,' but he did not go. 31 "Which of the two did what his father wanted?" "The first," they answered. Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God ahead of you."

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Matthew 21:28-31.
2. Why do you think Jesus told this parable? What kind of behaviors is he encouraging and discouraging?
3. How might we be like either son in terms of our relationship with God?
4. What does it mean to be an apprentice of Jesus instead of someone who simply goes to church?
5. Was there a time in your life when faith became more important than just weekly religious activities?
6. How would you encourage someone to become an apprentice of Jesus?

Take time to pray for each other.
