Grace | God-sized Vision | For Every Generation

Acts 10

1 At Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion in what was known as the Italian Regiment. 2 He and all his family were devout and God-fearing; he gave generously to those in need and prayed to God regularly. 3 One day at about three in the afternoon he had a vision. He distinctly saw an angel of God, who came to him and said, "Cornelius!" 4 Cornelius stared at him in fear. "What is it, Lord?" he asked. The angel answered, "Your prayers and gifts to the poor have come up as a memorial offering before God. 5 Now send men to Joppa to bring back a man named Simon who is called Peter. 6 He is staying with Simon the tanner, whose house is by the sea."

Questions for Discussion

1. Do you think people actually hear from God today?
2. Read Acts 10:1-23.
3. What do you think of passages like this one?
4. Have you ever heard God speak or thought maybe you did?
5. What are some reasons why we should pray to hear from God? Any reasons why we shouldn't?
6. Is there anything we need to do to prepare to hear from God?

Take time to pray for each other.
