James 1

2 My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, ²⁰because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires.

Luke 6

²⁷ "Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, ²⁸ bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. ²⁹ If someone slaps you on one cheek, turn to them the other also. If someone takes your coat, do not withhold your shirt from them. ³⁰ Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what belongs to you, do not demand it back. ³¹ Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read the passages to the left.
2. Why does Jesus tell us to love our enemies?
3. How is it possible to bless those who curse you?
4. What are some things we can do to quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to become angry.
5. What would the Church look like if everyone lived these texts out completely?
6. Is there anywhere in your life that you need to forgive and let go of your anger?

Take time to pray for each other.
