1 Cor. 11

²³ For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, ²⁴ and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me."²⁵ In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."²⁶ For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read 1 Corinthians 11:23-26
2. As you understand it, why does the church celebrate communion?
3. Why does the church celebrate baptism?
4. Why is it important to remember the early church when we plan for the future church?
5. What happens to a family when they move to a new place?
6. What might happen in a church that moves to a new home?

Take time to pray for each other and for Real Life's search for a new home.
