1 Cor. 13

1 If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. 2 If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. 3 If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing. 4 Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. 5 It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. 6 Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. 7 It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. 8 Love never fails.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read 1st Corinthians 13.
2. What is your initial reaction to this chapter? Why do you think this is popular at weddings?
3. What is the difference between the kind of love we develop naturally and the kind of love God calls us to?
4. What most distracts us from living lives of love? What should we do about these distractions?
5. What are ways someone can learn to love even their enemies, as Jesus taught us to do?

Take time to pray for for one another.
