Philippians 3

7 But whatever were gains to me I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. 8 What is more, I consider everything a loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them garbage, that I may gain Christ 9 and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ—the righteousness that comes from God on the basis of faith. 10 I want to know Christ—yes, to know the power of his resurrection and participation in his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, 11 and so, somehow, attaining to the resurrection from the dead.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Philippians 3:1-11.
2. What is Paul trying to say in this passage?
3. What exchange has Paul made? What has he given up? What has he gained in return?
4. When he talks about the “surpassing worth of knowing Christ,” what is he referring to?
5. How could knowing Christ be worth so much?
6. If someone asked you if Christianity is “worth it,” what would you say? How would you explain it?

Take time to pray for for one another.
