Luke 7

40 Jesus answered him, "Simon, I have something to tell you." "Tell me, teacher," he said.<sup>41</sup> "Two people owed money to a certain moneylender. One owed him five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. <sup>42</sup> Neither of them had the money to pay him back, so he forgave the debts of both. Now which of them will love him more?" <sup>43</sup> Simon replied, "I suppose the one who had the bigger debt forgiven." "You have judged correctly," Jesus said.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Luke 7:36-50.
2. Why does Luke capture this story about Jesus, the woman, and the Pharisee?
3. To whom in the story do you most relate?
4. Why might Christians be inclined to act like the Pharisee?
5. How are we all a bit like the woman in the story?
6. What would it look like for Christians to behave like forgiven people as society arises from this crisis?
7. Where do you need to forgive?

Take time to pray for for one another.
