Revelation 3

12 “To the angel of the church in Pergamum write. These are the words of him who has the sharp, double-edged sword. 13 I know where you live—where Satan has his throne. Yet you remain true to my name. You did not renounce your faith in me, not even in the days of Antipas, my faithful witness, who was put to death in your city—where Satan lives. 14 Nevertheless, I have a few things against you: There are some among you who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to entice the Israelites to sin so that they ate food sacrificed to idols and committed sexual immorality. 15 Likewise, you also have those who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans. 16 Repent therefore! Otherwise, I will soon come to you and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth. 17 Whoever has ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Revelation 2:12-17, the letters to Pergamum.
2. What is Jesus saying to this church?
3. Why does Jesus give both warnings and promises?
4. What do these letters say to Christians living in the modern day?
5. What are truths you lean on when life is difficult?
6. How do we honor God when we suffer?

Take time to pray for for one another.
