Matthew 6

19 “Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moths and vermin destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. 20 But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moths and vermin do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. 21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

25 “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes? 26 Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they? 27 Can any one of you by worrying add a single hour to your life?

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Matthew 6:19-34.
2. What does Jesus teach about money?
3. Have you known anyone to live this way? What would life look and feel like if lived according to these teachings?
4. What might help us see material resources in the same way that our Lord sees them?
5. If you were giving advice to a high school student about money, what would you say?
6. How might God be calling you to exercise your generosity?

Take time to pray for one another.
