Luke 9

12 Late in the afternoon the Twelve came to him and said, "Send the crowd away so they can go to the surrounding villages and countryside and find food and lodging, because we are in a remote place here." 13 He replied, "You give them something to eat." They answered, "We have only five loaves of bread and two fish— unless we go and buy food for all this crowd." 14 (About five thousand men were there.) But he said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty each." 15 The disciples did so, and everyone sat down. 16 Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke them. Then he gave them to the disciples to distribute to the people. 17 They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Luke 10:1-17.
2. What happens in the story of the bread and the loaves, and why do you think the story is important?
3. How do you think the disciples felt about the command to feed the crowds with what little they had?
4. In what ways have you experienced God using what you had to do more than you thought he could?
5. What makes it hard to trust God with what we have? How do we go about building the faith to trust him?
6. Is there anything God is calling you to risk for him right now?

Take time to pray for one another.
