Luke 6

43 “No good tree bears bad fruit, nor does a bad tree bear good fruit. 44 Each tree is recognized by its own fruit. People do not pick figs from thornbushes, or grapes from briars. 45 A good man brings good things out of the good stored up in his heart, and an evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in his heart. For the mouth speaks what the heart is full of.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Luke 6:43-49
2. What are the meanings of Jesus' two metaphors here?
3. Why might Jesus teach us to evaluate in this way after just telling us not to judge people?
4. What are the good fruit of a life lived in obedience to Jesus?
5. How do the spiritual practices of worship, living in community, understandings ourselves as messengers and missionaries, and giving generously help us to be rooted in good soil?

Take time to pray for one another.
