Luke 9

22 And he said, “The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests and the teachers of the law, and he must be killed and on the third day be raised to life.” 23 Then he said to them all: “Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me. 24 For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for me will save it. 25 What good is it for someone to gain the whole world, and yet lose or forfeit their very self? 26 Whoever is ashamed of me and my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of them when he comes in his glory and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Luke 9:22-26.
2. What does it mean to take up your cross?
3. How can Jesus promise us an abundant and happy life if we are supposed to take up a cross?
4. How does God affect our daily activities - our work or studies?
5. What does it look like to crucify our own senses for work in order to follow God's calling?
6. How, if at all, would your life change if you gave all of your daily activities to God?

Take time to pray for one another.
