Matthew 7

1 “Do not judge, or you too will be judged. 2 For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.

3 “Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother’s eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? 4 How can you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ when all the time there is a plank in your own eye? 5 You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother’s eye.

6 “Do not give dogs what is sacred; do not throw your pearls to pigs. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Matthew 7:1-6..
2. What makes this teaching difficult?
3. Have you ever seen anyone keep this teaching well?
4. What would the Church look like if we all followed this teaching?
5. Does the text say we are supposed to turn a blind eye to injustice or sin? What is the alternative?
6. What does the line about pigs and dogs mean?
7. How might we practice these teachings?

Take time to pray for one another.
