Acts 17

22 Paul then stood up in the meeting of the Areopagus and said: “People of Athens! I see that in every way you are very religious. 23 For as I walked around and looked carefully at your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: to an unknown god. So you are ignorant of the very thing you worship—and this is what I am going to proclaim to you.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Acts 17:16-33.
2. Why does Paul try to convince the Athenians? What motivates him?
3. How did he go about doing it?
4. What are some things Christians do to communicate the gospel of Jesus in the modern world that aren't actually helpful?
5. Why do we seek to communicate love first instead of disagreement or disapproval?

Take time to pray for for one another.
