Luke 7

40 Jesus answered him, “Simon, I have something to tell you.” “Tell me, teacher,” he said. 41 “Two people owed money to a certain moneylender. One owed him five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. 42 Neither of them had the money to pay him back, so he forgave the debts of both. Now which of them will love him more?” 43 Simon replied, “I suppose the one who had the bigger debt forgiven.” “You have judged correctly,” Jesus said. 44 Then he turned toward the woman and said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I came into your house. You did not give me any water for my feet, but she wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. 45 You did not give me a kiss, but this woman, from the time I entered, has not stopped kissing my feet. 46 You did not put oil on my head, but she has poured perfume on my feet. 47 Therefore, I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven—as her great love has shown.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Luke 7:36-50.
2. What does Simon miss in this encounter with Jesus? What is it the woman realizes that Simon doesn't?
3. When have you felt like the woman in this story? When have you felt like Simon?
4. What happens if we simply remain neutral or agnostic about Jesus' call on our lives? What are we likely to miss out on?
5. How does repentance shape our relationship with Jesus and our self-esteem?

Take time to pray for for one another.
