Acts 2

13 Someone in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.” 14 Jesus replied, “Man, who appointed me a judge or an arbiter between you?” 15 Then he said to them, “Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; life does not consist in an abundance of possessions.” 16 And he told them this parable: “The ground of a certain rich man yielded an abundant harvest. 17 He thought to himself, ‘What shall I do? I have no place to store my crops.’ 18 “Then he said, ‘This is what I’ll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store my surplus grain. 19 And I’ll say to myself, “You have plenty of grain laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry.”’ 20 “But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?’ 21 “This is how it will be with whoever stores up things for themselves but is not rich toward God.”

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Luke 12:13-21.
2. What does this man want from Jesus?
3. Why do we tend to cling to an “abundance of possessions?”
4. What does it mean to be rich towards God?
5. How has 2020 shaped our anxiety about possessions?
6. In what ways do you want to respond to Jesus’ call to generosity?
7. Where does Jesus want you personally to get “unstuck” as we come to the end of 2020?

Take time to pray for for one another.
