Revelation 21

1 Then I saw “a new heaven and a new earth,”[a] for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. 2 I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. 3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Look! God’s dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. 4 ‘He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death’ or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.” 5 He who was seated on the throne said, “I am making everything new!” Then he said, “Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true.” 6 He said to me: “It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the thirsty I will give water without cost from the spring of the water of life. 7 Those who are victorious will inherit all this, and I will be their God and they will be my children.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Revelation 21.
2. What do Christians have to hope for?
3. How does hope change the way we live our lives?
4. What do you hope we will take away from the last year?
5. What do you hope the Church will become because of the hardships we’ve endured?
6. 1 Peter 3:15 says that we should be ready to explain the reason for our hope. How would you explain a Christian’s hope to someone who is not a Christian?

Take time to pray for one another.
