Deuteronomy 6

4 Hear, O Israel:

The Lord our God,
the Lord is one. 5

Love the Lord your God
with all your heart and with all your soul and
with all your strength.

6 These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. 7

Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you
walk along the road,
when you lie down and
when you get up. 8 Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind
them on your foreheads. 9 Write them
on the doorframes of your houses and on
your gates.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Deuteronomy 6:4-9.
2. Why is it so important to make God's word central to our daily experiences?
3. Why might our prayer life lose this kind of urgency?
4. What are some practical steps we can take to have a more active prayer life and to keep God at the center of our attention during the day?
5. What have been some of the most important experiences of prayer and meditation that you have had in your life?
6. Have you ever asked God to speak directly to you? Why or why not? If so, what happened?

Take time to pray for one another.
