Mark 1

21 They went to Capernaum, and when the Sabbath came, Jesus went into the synagogue and began to teach. 22 The people were amazed at his teaching, because he taught them as one who had authority, not as the teachers of the law. 23 Just then a man in their synagogue who was possessed by an impure spirit cried out, 24 “What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!” 25 “Be quiet!” said Jesus sternly. “Come out of him!” 26 The impure spirit shook the man violently and came out of him with a shriek. 27 The people were all so amazed that they asked each other, “What is this? A new teaching—and with authority! He even gives orders to impure spirits and they obey him.” 28 News about him spread quickly over the whole region of Galilee.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Mark 1:21-28.
2. What happens in the story? What do you think about stories like this in the Bible?
3. Hebrews tells us to never fail to entertain strangers, because by doing so, some have welcomed angels without knowing it. What do you make of that?
4. What do you think about stories of angels and demons today?
5. What might be the importance or relevance of those stories for us?

Take time to pray for one another.
