Luke 6

20 Looking at his disciples, he said: “Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. 21 Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. 22 Blessed are you when people hate you, when they exclude you and insult you and reject your name as evil, because of the Son of Man. 23 “Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, because great is your reward in heaven. For that is how their ancestors treated the prophets. 24 “But woe to you who are rich, for you have already received your comfort. 25 Woe to you who are well fed now, for you will go hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will mourn and weep. 26 Woe to you when everyone speaks well of you, for that is how their ancestors treated the false prophets.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Luke 6:17-26.
2. What are the values of Jesus' kingdom? What do they mean?
3. What would it take for any one of us to be in the category that he calls blessed?
4. Given that most of us pursue the things which Jesus warns against, how is a life of discipleship supposed to look?
5. Can you think of examples of people you've seen in your lifetime who have lived with the values of Jesus' kingdom?

Take time to pray for one another.
