John 17

11 I will remain in the world no longer, but they are still in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them by the power of your name, the name you gave me, so that they may be one as we are one. 12 While I was with them, I protected them and kept them safe by that name you gave me. None has been lost except the one doomed to destruction so that Scripture would be fulfilled. 13 "I am coming to you now, but I say these things while I am still in the world, so that they may have the full measure of my joy within them. 14 I have given them your word and the world has hated them, for they are not of the world any more than I am of the world. 15 My prayer is not that you take them out of the world but that you protect them from the evil one. 16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of it. 17 Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth. 18 As you sent me into the world, I have sent them into the world. 19 For them I sanctify myself, that they too may be truly sanctified.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read John 17:11-19.
2. What does Jesus pray for?
3. What does it mean for us to be in the world but not "of" the world?
4. What does the word "holiness" mean to you?
5. Has the biblical call to live a holy life challenged or changed you in any way? How might it change us?
6. How might a holy life actually set us free?

Take time to pray for one another.
