Malachi 3

8 “Will a mere mortal rob God? Yet you rob me. “But you ask, ‘How are we robbing you?’ “In tithes and offerings. 9 You are under a curse—your whole nation—because you are robbing me. 10 Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. Test me in this,” says the Lord Almighty, “and see if I will not throw open the floodgates of heaven and pour out so much blessing that there will not be room enough to store it. 11 I will prevent pests from devouring your crops, and the vines in your fields will not drop their fruit before it is ripe,” says the Lord Almighty. 12 “Then all the nations will call you blessed, for yours will be a delightful land,” says the Lord Almighty.

Questions for Discussion

1. Read Malachi 3:6-12.
2. What does God say to his people here?
3. Why do you think the message is so intense? Why does the topic of offerings matter so much?
4. What makes it difficult to be generous, and what are the benefits of generosity?
5. How have you seen someone practice generosity eagerly?
6. What would it take for you to live a more generous life?

Take time to pray for one another.
